Jefferson Circuit Court, Criminal Term.
The case of Martin Deekhart was dismissed.

John Collingwood, charged with manslaughter, was tried and acquitted.

The case of Wm. White and John Kavanaugh was continued and bail required of each in $600.

The grand jury returned true bills of indictment against the following persons: Thomas Ford, murder; David Lewis, larceny; George Glendorn, larceny; Thos. H. Seymour, larceny; Fred. Tucker, larceny; Chas. Russell, larceny; Anna Reed, counterfeiting; Wm. Allen, alias Aaron Virgin, murder.

The hour of adjournment last evening the jury had not returned a verdict in the case of J. H. Montgomery, charged with murder. The accused was remanded to jail.

Another Iron-Clad Launched.—The iron-clad gunboat Osage was launched from the docks of Capt. Jas. B. Eads & Co., at St. Louis, the other day. She is one of the five new boats being built for the Government by these well-known builders. The launch was perfectly successful. The Osage is a hundred and eighty feet long by forty-five broad, with four feet depth of hold. The hull is sheathed with iron and is divided into six watertight compartments. She is built on the plan of the monitor, with revolving turret, and will carry two eleven-inch guns. She will draw only three and a half feet with her armament.

The Snow.—As we have rarely had such snows in this latitude as that which commenced falling after the rain of Wednesday, and which continues to descend at the present writing, it has reached a depth of fully eighteen inches, and it is probable that a considerably depth will be added to that which has already fallen. The storm has effectually housed for the time the greater portion of our city's population, and ordinary out-door pursuits have been suspended. Of course the railroad will be blocked to a great extent, and the temporary inconvenience imposed by the storm will be seriously felt. The poor will feel more keenly the deprivations to which their poverty subjects them, and the soldier on picket will sigh for the comfort of home. But the merry music of the sleigh-bells will draw to many the sad wailings of the poor and lull them into forgetfulness of the tribulations of the noble fellows who brave the elements and brunt the storm of battle in our defense.

The young ladies of the Female High School are heroines. Prof. Chase informs us that sixty-two of his pupils answered to their names at roll-call yesterday morning, in spite of the terrible storm that raged. In recognition of their promptness yesterday the Professor gave a great institution it is. A six story building in Dey street, from cellar to garret, is occupied as a laboratory for producing this single medicine. Some forty persons are employed; several vats, holding six thousand gallons each, are filled with roots, herbs, and material, and then soaked in water, and the expression preserved in pure St. Croix Rum. I have seen the bags, boxes and postagerecipients, at 403 Fourth street, under United States Hotel. [13 dec] MYERS & BRO.

Director of the Hospitals.
